

JOHNSON & STEIN

COMPARING THEIR VIEWS ON HEALTH ISSUES

Affordable Care Act

- No stated position in policy outline
- Verbally stated his belief that the Affordable Care Act is unconstitutional
- Believes that healthcare is a human right
- Wishes to create comprehensive single payer public health program

Prescription Drugs

- No stated position in policy outline
- Wants to end the overcharging of prescription drugs through bulk purchasing negotiations

Women's Health

- Believes that all individuals should be allowed to make their own choices about their personal lives, including abortion
- Wants to expand access to all reproductive/contraceptive care and services
- expand access to Plan B

Mental Health

- No stated position in policy outline
- Wants to cover mental health services in single payer health program

Equal Pay

- No stated position in policy outline
- Ensure equal pay for equal work, ending discrimination based on gender, race, or generation

2nd Amendment

- No stated position in policy outline
- Has stated that he is against gun regulation
- No stated position in policy outline

Vaccination

- No stated position in policy outline
- Has come out in support of child mandates
- No stated position in policy outline

Environment

- Believes EPA is important for protecting the environment
- Says climate change is "possibly" real
- Strong commitment to every aspect of environmental protection including: renewable energy, banning energy extraction (coal, oil), and sustainable agriculture